

All Nations

The college offers a series of innovative and specialist arts modules validated by the Open University at undergraduate and postgraduate level. You can study these arts focused modules alongside Biblical and Intercultural modules. This will equip you for effective cross-cultural mission and ministry. Some of the arts modules we offer are in Visual Culture, Art, Culture and Identity, Performing Arts in Community, Arts for a Better Future and Arts and Trauma Healing.

Arts Release ARTS RELEASE

WEC International's ARTS RELEASE ministry is a collective of full-timers and part-timers focussed on musical, performing and visual arts, who love Jesus and people of other cultures. The team has a passion for expressing worship and God's love through various art forms. Facilitating others in multicultural worship, drama techniques, prophetic art, songwriting and short-term mission are some of the ways this works out. Arts Release is currently based in England, France and Germany.

Tutors

Ian Collinge trains people in culture-appropriate music both at All Nations, in WEC International and more widely. Ian has experience as a church planter, researcher and tutor and has produced worship resources for churches across the Himalayas. Currently he is developing multicultural worship and leading WEC's Arts Release team (formerly 'Resonance') in the UK and beyond.

Jill Ford is tutor in the Arts at All Nations. Over the last fifteen years Jill has designed, delivered and integrated a range of arts modules in to the All Nations training programme. Jill has a passion to promote the arts in mission and has been working in partnership with Ian and Arts Release to deliver courses in the area of multicultural worship for a number of years. Jill and Ian are both members of "Imagine" a group which seeks to foster artistic expression in multicultural worship for the UK.

Library

All Nations has one of the finest mission libraries in the UK with over 60,000 volumes as well as a wide range of journals and audio visual material. Free wifi access is available in all the buildings.

Accommodation

We have a range of comfortable single, twin and double bedded rooms and all rooms have wash basins. Baths and showers are located near each room. Towels and bed linen are provided. All meals are served in the college's cafeteria. Special diets can be catered for, please give notice when booking.

Multicultural Worship Day

Saturday 17th February 2018

Who is the day for?

The Multicultural Worship Day is for anyone interested in learning more about the relationship between music, worship and culture. We will take you on a journey to understand more about the importance of “heart music” and how you can identify with it. We will help you understand the heart music of other cultures and how you can use this knowledge for the benefit of worship in your church or ministry setting. We hope this will enable you to draw closer to God and see the possibility of new forms of worship that fully express the identity of your congregation.

Topics include

- Heart music
- Multicultural forms of worship
- Global song workshops
- Musical ensembles
- Multicultural Worship discussions
- Global worship celebration

Day cost

£55 per person
(includes lunch)

it is EVERYTHING we do.

Music and Global Worship Week

12th – 16th February 2018

Who is the course for?

The Music and Global Worship Course is designed for those who have a particular interest in the music of other cultures and want to apply this to cross-cultural Christian ministry. The course aims to equip you with skills and tools for performing and analysing music in primarily non-western contexts. It will help you do fieldwork and facilitate the creation of new songs by a chosen community. This course will benefit those with some musical skills.

*Please also note that the intensive teaching sessions for this course will take place from 2-6pm every day. Use of the College library is available and would benefit course participants.

Topics include

- The Role of Ethnomusicology in Christian Mission
- The Role of Ethnodoxology in Christian Mission
- Learning Musical Instruments of Other Cultures
- Instrumental Ensemble
- Song Creation Workshops
- Song Writing Workshops
- World Music Listening
- Ethnomusicology Research and Surveys

Course cost

Residential rate:

£385 per person

Non residential rate:

£335 per person (includes lunch)
